Angela Roark

Flute &
Piccolo

After Hours Community Band Member Spotlight

Angela has been a member of the AHCB since 2001. She began her love of music in elementary school and played a musical instrument through high school. She took a 5 year hiatus.

Angela learned of the AHCB from a co-worker, who encouraged her to join the band. She decided to join the band and has enjoyed playing the flute now for over 25 years.

Currently, Angela is the board of directors vice president. She has also held the Member at Large post. She has also served on the election and finance committees. Angela also compiles and delivers the AHCB "Band Notes" newsletter.

Along with flute and piccolo, Angela has also tried out the oboe and French horn. She plans to stick with the flute.

Angela likes the fact that "everyone is there because of a shared love of playing music in a group. We have fun and enjoy each others company, and share our music with the community." She likes that "AHCB is a great no-pressure organization. Not only do we support each other, we support music education."

HOBBIES & INTERESTS:

Angela loves reading, gardening, horseback riding, hiking, traveling and swimming in the ocean.

"Not only do we support each other, we support music education."
