

July 21, 2019

Steven Lindsey

Clarinet

After Hours Community Band Member Spotlight

Steven has been a member of the AHCB since 2018. He missed playing in a band, having not played in over 12 years.

Steven began playing back in elementary school and played through college. He tried out trumpet and violin in elem. school, but found reed instruments were for him. Steven also plays alto sax.

Steven's job is as provider operations at Wellcare.

HOBBIES:

Fan of the Denver Broncos football team. Also lived a short time in Denver. He also loves shopping and travel.

MUSIC: Steven loves classical, jazz, gospel and R&B music. Coming from a musical family, his father and uncle were jazz trumpeters. Steven has two cousins that were R&B singers. The late R&B Grammy award winning James Ingram and his brother, R&B singer Philip Ingram, who sang with Tommy DeBarge, were Stevens cousins.

AHCB Interests:

What Steven really enjoys about playing with the band is the variety of music. "I enjoy being surrounded by band members with similar musical interests."

"I enjoy being surrounded by band members with similar musical interests"

Special points of interest:

- Provider Operations at Wellcare
- Pleased with the reeds—clarinet and sax
- Broncos football fan
- Band Member since 2018
- St. Louis native

